

A seminar and two-days of workshop on “Android Application Development”

A seminar and two-days of workshop on “Android Application Development” was held during 16 th -19 th August especially for the students of final year BCA, pre-final year and final year MCA. The seminar was conducted by TechTree Technologies, an IT education institute based on Kolkata, West Bengal. TechTree technologies is a pioneering educational institute in Information Technology software, hardware and analytics training. Using their enhanced global software training approach and industry expertise they are nurturing the naïve skills for the IT industry. A half-day seminar on the introduction to android platform was delivered by their Business and Operation Head, Mr. Mukul Basu and Business Manager, Ms. Priya Nandi. Two-days of hands-on workshop was conducted on android programming for the students in their corporate venue.

