Remembering Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel - The Iron Man of India

Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel was born in a Gurjar patidar of Gujarat on 31 October 1875. His native place was Karamsad. He was an Indian barrister and statesman, leader of the Indian National Congress and one of the founding fathers of the Republic of India. He was a social leader who played a leading role in the country's struggle for independence and guided its integration into a united, independent nation. In India and elsewhere, he was often addressed as Sardar.

He was raised in the countryside of Gujarat. Vallabhbhai Patel was employed in successful practice as a lawyer. Patel subsequently organised peasants from Kheda, Borsad, and Bardoli in Gujarat in non-violent civil disobedience against oppressive policies imposed by the British Raj; in this role, he became one of the most influential leaders in Gujarat. He rose to the leadership of the Indian National Congress and was at the forefront of rebellions and political events, organising the party for elections in 1934 and 1937, and promoting the Quit India movement.

As the first Home Minister and Deputy Prime Minister of India, Patel organised relief for refugees in Punjab and Delhi, and led efforts to restore peace across the nation. Patel took charge of the task to forge a united India from the British colonial provinces allocated to India and more than five hundred self-governing princely states, released from British suzerainty by the Indian Independence Act 1947. Using frank diplomacy, backed with the option and use of military force, Patel's leadership persuaded almost every princely state. Often known as the "Iron Man of India" or "Bismarck of India", he is also remembered as the "Patron Saint" of India's civil servants for establishing modern all-India services. This great son of India passed away on 15 December 1950.

NEW YEAR WISH

We left behind another eventful year and will start a new year with new promises and expectations. I am sure that we shall overcome all the resistances with our dedication, hard work and confidence. In this occasion, let us promise to join our hands together to raise the flag of the Institute high. I would like to take this opportunity to wish all of our students, faculties and staff members a very happy and prosperous new year.

- Prof. (Dr.) Sutapa Mukherjee
Principal BPPIMT

May the new year bring you success
happiness and prosperity.
Have a happy new year!
May each and every day of the New Year
Brings you lots of happiness and love.
Happy New Year 2015.
