

Hardware design and implementation competition in B.P. Poddar Institute of Management and Technology during 29th September to 1st October, 2016 organized by Dept. of ECE.

A competition providing students a platform to combine their knowledge and skill and extend it to a professional level in electronic circuit design and implementation. An opportunity for them to nurture their creativity and innovation on applied engineering concepts.

